•Magellan was born in Portugal. He grew up in a wealthy family and served as a page in the royal court. He enjoyed sailing and exploring and sailed for Portugal for many years.

•Magellan had travelled to India by sailing around Africa, but he thought there may be another route by travelling west and around the Americas. The King of Portugal did not agree and argued with Magellan. Finally, he went to visit King Charles V of Spain who agreed to fund the voyage.

.In September of 1519 Magellan set sail his attempt to find another route to Eastern Asia. There were over 270 men and 5 ships under his command. The ships were the Trinidad, the Santiago, the Victoria, the Concepcion and the San Antonio.

.They first sailed across the Atlantic and the Canary Islands. From there they sailed south to Brazil and the Coast of South America. Soon he found the passage he was seeking. He called it the All Saints' Chanel, today the Straits of Magellan.

•Finally, he entered into a new ocean on the other side of the new world. He called the ocean the Pacific. It took four months for the ships to make it to the Mariana Islands.

•Then the ships headed to the Philippines where he and 40 men were killed in a battle in 1521.
